

We are looking for a

RESEARCHER

Go beyond your professional expectations

PPMI provides research-based advice aimed at improving public policy and management. We help public sector organisations deal with contemporary public policy challenges. We enjoy working on complex issues, providing evidence-based solutions that make a difference. Learn more about us here.

WHAT YOU WOULD DO

You should be ready to partake in a wide range of research and organisational activities including but not limited to:

- implementing policy research - including qualitative and quantitative analysis, ensuring high-quality and timely delivery of necessary outputs
- mobilizing experts from PPMI network and beyond to contribute to ongoing and potential projects
- presenting research findings to colleagues, clients and the public at large

WHAT WE ARE LOOKING FOR

We're looking for researchers with:

- theoretical and practical knowledge of applied social science research (qualitative, quantitative or both)
- full English proficiency and excellent writing skills
- experience with tools for social science research and management (NVivo, R, SPSS, Trello, etc.)
- a strong and proven interest in our core areas of expertise

WHY PPMI

You should expect a fast-paced and dynamic environment, where the ability to work in teams and individually go hand-in-hand. We offer:

- opportunity to participate in high quality research and influence decision making among government leaders
- competitive benefit/compensation package
- a rewarding working environment that allows you to grow personally and professionally
- training on methodological and thematic topics

If you deem your skills and experience suitable for PPMI, please send your CV with the subject 'Researcher' to careers@ppmi.lt by 20 November 2017
